Adopt the Agenda as presented. Kennedy motioned, seconded by Jen. Carried.

Motion made by Kennedy to accept minutes as presented, seconded by Jen. Carried.

Outstanding Business:

- The music festival was well attended. Megan presented on behalf of SCC
- AGM on May 24th. Melissa B is letting her name stand. Megan C will not be returning as president. Megan has recommended that the president and hot lunch leader not be in the same position. Facebook page is going to be posting write-ups of current SCC members and why they joined the SCC to help with more interest in gaining new members.

New Business:

- Field Day on June 27th. Knights of Columbus is wanting to do a hot dog lunch for the school. The special events committee still has to figure out all the details of what they are wanting to do/ how to proceed.
- Toonies for tuition is to support families that want to send their kids to a catholic school for education. The goal is to raise $2 per student. Ideas for this are lunchtime dances/ canteens.
- Shauna Bauman has stepped down effective immediately from the SCC

SRC Report - Sabrina

- Planning at 7-9 dance for June 1st
- Also wanting to plan a K-3 and 4-6 dance before the end of the year.
- Lent activity was making cards for a variety of organizations in the community, this went over very well.
- SRC is wanting to put on some events like a talent show, and a mystery night. These events would most likely be happening in the new school year.
